

Corazon del Sol, Gran Reserva Revana Vineyard Malbec 2017 Los Chacayes

100% Malbec. High-temperature fermentation in their typical style. Made from their eight best barrels of Malbec. All estate-grown fruit. Winemaking is overseen by consultant oenologist Santiago Achával.

Dark, velvety fruit draped in folds over and along a cool rod of freshness. Long from front to back of the tongue and then back to the front again. A kind of stoniness, although not stony. Mica-like minerality glinting underneath the fruit. The tannins feel like brocade, weighted but not sturdy, drawing with implacable presence, but resilient, not rigid. Plum and violets, dark berries and dark chocolate. Dramatic and ambitious, the spice and remarkable grip of the wine balanced by the freshness of the fruit. Don't broach this too early. (TC)
